My response

3 What does the red poppy stand for?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor A or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Is silence the only way to remember?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A The poppy

In the UK many people wear a red poppy in November. The Royal British Legion describes it as a symbol of remembrance and of hope for a peaceful future.

Source: Authored summary; see Royal British Legion, The poppy

Limit: Wearing a poppy is a personal choice. People have different views about it.

B Two minutes of silence

On 11 November at 11 o'clock many people stop for two minutes of silence to remember people who died in wars.

Source: Authored summary of UK Remembrance practice

Limit: Silence is one way to remember. A quiet alternative is always available.

C A light in the window

Many people light a candle or lamp to remember someone or to show hope. Light in the dark can stand for hope.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: A symbol can mean different things to different people.

D A memorial

A memorial can be a stone, a garden, a bench or a list of names. It gives people a place to remember.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Memorials remember different people and events.

Shared investigation

1. Sort each symbol: hope, remembrance or both.
2. Explain how a symbol can carry meaning.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
