Hope and remembrance / BUILD_RE_A2_W05

Outcome: Reflect on one way light or remembrance can represent hope.

Evidence to retain: F: symbol with one word or short explanation; monitor regulation.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Keep content sensitive and neutral; monitor emotional responses; provide alternative community-focused prompt; explain reflection is optional and non-devotional.

Access and regulation

No personal bereavement disclosure; third-person examples; one-word/symbol response accepted; quiet-space option; verbal/scribed route.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: What does the red poppy stand for?

Evidence: A The poppy: In the UK many people wear a red poppy in November. The Royal British Legion describes it as a symbol of remembrance and of hope for a peaceful future.

Think aloud: Remembrance and hope for a peaceful future.

Check: Is silence the only way to remember? No. People remember in different ways.

Arrival answers

1. No. It is learning about a celebration.
2. Believing that something good can happen
3. Remembrance and hope for a peaceful future.
4. No. People remember in different ways.

Shared activity reasoning

1. A candle lit in the dark — Hope. Card C: light in the dark can stand for hope.
2. A list of names on a stone — Remembrance. Card D: a memorial gives people a place to remember.
3. A red poppy — Both. Card A: remembrance and hope for a peaceful future.

Exit responses

What does the red poppy stand for? Remembrance and hope for a peaceful future.

Is silence the only way to remember? No. People remember in different ways.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 retrieval questions. Starter: choose which images suggest hope/remembrance. I Do: model how a symbol can carry meaning. We Do: discuss simple examples of light, flowers, silence or memorials. You Do: create a hope/remembrance symbol with one word or short explanation. Exit ticket: 'Hope can be shown by...'.

Look for

F: symbol with one word or short explanation; monitor regulation.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
