Previous lesson reminder:

A · A red poppy

B · A party balloon

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Give one similarity between two festivals of light.

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits remembrance?

Support: Choose: Taking time to remember people and events OR Being thankful.

My response

3 Name one value that Ruth and Dan share.

Support: Use the model evidence anchor B, C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Do people have to be religious to take part in remembrance?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Remembrance in the UK

On 11 November and Remembrance Sunday many people keep two minutes of silence and wear a poppy to remember people who died in wars.

Source: Authored summary; see Royal British Legion, The poppy

Limit: Wearing a poppy is a personal choice. People hold different views.

B A religious response

Fictional profile: Ruth is Christian. At her church service people pray for peace and read out names from the village memorial.

Source: Authored profile

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

C A non-religious response

Fictional profile: Dan is a Humanist. He stands in silence at the town memorial and thinks about how to prevent war.

Source: Authored profile

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

D Shared values

Ruth and Dan believe different things. Both show respect, gratitude and a hope for peace.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Sharing values does not make two worldviews the same.

Shared investigation

1. Inspect each card, then match each action to a value.
2. Name a value that Ruth and Dan share.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
