

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

A · Two people, the same value

B · Two people, different values

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Give one respectful question stem.

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits value?

Support: Choose: Something a person thinks is important in how to live OR What a person puts first.

My response

3 Give one way to show respect when values differ.

Support: Use the model evidence anchor B or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Does respect mean you have to agree?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Two priorities

Fictional case: Aaliyah puts family first and leaves a club early for a family meal. Ben puts commitment first and stays to the end. Neither is wrong.

Source: Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person, family or community.

B A respectful response

Ben says, “See you next week. Hope the meal is good.” He respects a value he does not share.

Source: Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person, family or community.

C A disrespectful response

A team-mate says, “You’re letting us down for a dinner?” This mocks Aaliyah’s value.

Source: Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person, family or community.

D Respect is not agreement

You can respect a person’s right to their values without agreeing. Respect has limits: it never means accepting harm.

Source: Authored classroom rules

Limit: Hard cases need a trusted adult, not a slogan.

Shared investigation

1. Decide whether each response shows respect.

2. Rewrite one response that needs changing.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Move or match the cards

Cards to use
"I'd have stayed, but I get why you're going."
"You're letting us down for a dinner?"
"See you next week. Hope the meal is good."

Possible labels: Needs changing / Respectful

Our explanation

Support: Read one evidence card together. Highlight a useful detail. Rehearse with: ____ values _____. One way to show respect is _____.

Further challenge: Explain why respecting someone's values is different from agreeing with them.

Supported independent task

Complete this route only. Identify a value that matters to a person and explain how respecting different values supports community.

1. Read the scenario with an adult.
2. Choose the value card for each person.
3. Point to the respectful response.

Support: Read one evidence card together. Highlight a useful detail. Rehearse with: ____ values _____. One way to show respect is _____. Complete the organiser one space at a time. ____ values _____. One way to show respect is _____.

My choice or example

A detail from the card story or object

My reason

My check or next step

An adult may read or scribe your exact response. They should not choose the answer.

Standard independent task

Complete this route only. Identify a value that matters to a person and explain how respecting different values supports community.

1. Identify the value that matters to each person.
2. Choose or write a respectful response.
3. Explain how it supports the community.

Support: ____ values _____. One way to show respect is _____.

My choice or example

A detail from the card story or object

My reason

My check or next step

Check the required evidence and revise one detail.

Stretch independent task

Complete this route only. Identify a value that matters to a person and explain how respecting different values supports community.

1. Identify both values and the clash.
2. Write a respectful response that still disagrees.
3. Explain one limit to tolerance.

Support: Choose the evidence independently. Use the frame only if it helps.

My choice or example

A detail from the card story or object

My reason

My check or next step

Explain why respecting someone's values is different from agreeing with them.

Exit ticket

Choose a response mode. You may give your answers privately to an adult.

Give one way to show respect when values differ.

My response

Does respect mean you have to agree?

My response

Support: ____ values _____. One way to show respect is _____.

Further challenge: Explain why respecting someone's values is different from agreeing with them.

One thing I changed or want to check
