Belief, identity and belonging in adult life / LAUNCH_RE_A1_W01

Outcome: Explain one way a belief or worldview can influence a person's identity or choices.

Evidence to retain: F: identity-influence map with one explained link.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Model each step; no cold calling; keep examples third- person; prompt with 'What evidence can you see?'; allow processing time and adult rephrasing. 4

Access and regulation

Short profiles; visual influence icons; sentence stems; MCQ route; verbal/scribed response; no requirement for personal disclosure; typing option.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: How does Daniel's belief influence his choice of work?

Evidence: A Daniel: Fictional profile: Daniel is 24, Christian and a care worker. He says, "I believe every person is made in the image of God, so everyone deserves dignity." He chose care work over a better-paid job.

Think aloud: He believes everyone deserves dignity, so he chose care work.

Check: Does a belief fully determine a person's identity? No. It is one influence among several, and views can change.

Arrival answers

1. The way a person sees life and what matters
2. The way a person sees life and what matters
3. He believes everyone deserves dignity, so he chose care work.
4. No. It is one influence among several, and views can change.

Shared activity reasoning

1. "Every person is made in the image of God." — Belief. It is what Daniel holds to be true.
2. Chose care work over a better-paid job — Choice. It is a decision linked to the belief.
3. "I want my life to be useful." — Identity. It is how Priya sees herself.

Exit responses

How does Daniel's belief influence his choice of work? He believes everyone deserves dignity, so he chose care work.

Does a belief fully determine a person's identity? No. It is one influence among several, and views can change.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 short retrieval/misconception questions about belief, identity, religion and worldview. Starter: choose which influences may shape a person's identity. I Do: model a short lived-worldview profile and identify belief → choice → identity. We Do: examine two contrasting profiles and highlight evidence of influence. You Do: complete an identity-influence map for a fictional person and explain one link. Exit ticket: "A worldview can influence identity by...".

Look for

F: identity-influence map with one explained link.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
