Previous lesson reminder:

A · Overlapping circles

B · A list

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 How does Daniel's belief influence his choice of work?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits theist?

Support: Choose: A person who believes in God or gods OR Not following a religion, but still holding beliefs and values.

My response

3 Name one belief from each worldview.

Support: Use the model evidence anchor A, B or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Do all Christians believe exactly the same things?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Christianity: key beliefs

Christians believe in one God, understood as Trinity. They believe Jesus is the Son of God, and that his teaching and example show how to live. Most believe in life after death.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Christians differ on many details.

B Humanism: key beliefs

Humanists do not believe in a god. They hold that this life is the only one we have, that reason and evidence are the best guides, and that people can live good lives without religion.

Source: Authored summary of Humanists UK's description of Humanism

Limit: Humanists differ on many details.

C Belief or practice?

A belief is held to be true: "God exists." A practice is done: "going to church". Compare belief with belief.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Some statements mix both.

D Shared ground

Both worldviews value kindness, honesty and responsibility for others. They differ on God and on life after death.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Sharing values does not make two worldviews the same.

Shared investigation

1. Sort each belief: Christianity, Humanism or both.
2. Explain one similarity or difference using a card.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
