Previous lesson reminder:

A · A sacred text

B · A question mark

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Name one belief from each worldview.

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits authority?

Support: Choose: A source people trust to guide what they believe or do OR Writing that is holy to a religion, such as the Bible or the Qur'an.

My response

3 Define “authority” in RE.

Support: Use the model evidence anchor C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Is authority in RE the same as being in charge?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Religious sources

Many believers turn to sacred texts, religious leaders such as a priest, imam or rabbi, and the traditions of their community.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Belief and practice vary between individuals and communities.

B Non-religious sources

Many non-religious people turn to reason, evidence, conscience and the experience of people they trust.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Religious people use reason and conscience too.

C Authority is not “being in charge”

A boss can give orders. An authority in RE is a source a person chooses to trust for guidance.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: People can question an authority and still respect it.

D Scenarios

Amira must decide whether to report a friend who is stealing at work. Joe must decide whether to take a job that means working every Sunday.

Source: Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person, family or community.

Shared investigation

1. Match each fictional decision to a source the person might turn to.
2. Explain why that source could guide them.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Move or match the cards

Cards to use
Priya weighs the likely consequences for everyone
Joe talks it through with his priest
Amira reads what the Qur'an says about honesty

Possible labels: Reason / Religious leader / Sacred text

Our explanation

Support: Use the glossary and one chunk of evidence. Plan the claim and supporting detail before explaining.

Further challenge: Explain what a person might do when two sources of authority disagree.

Supported independent task
