Sources of authority and meaning / LAUNCH_RE_A1_W03

Outcome: Recognise a source of authority or meaning and explain how it may guide a believer or non- religious person.

Evidence to retain: F: one scenario explained: which source might guide the person and why.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Model difference between 'authority' and 'being in charge'; use realistic adult-life dilemmas; support evidence selection before writing.

Access and regulation

Icon-supported source cards; one scenario at a time; 2-3 answer choices; read-aloud; sentence stem ' may guide them because... '.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Define “authority” in RE.

Evidence: C Authority is not “being in charge”: A boss can give orders. An authority in RE is a source a person chooses to trust for guidance.

Think aloud: A source people trust to guide what they believe or do.

Check: Is authority in RE the same as being in charge? No. It is a trusted source of guidance.

Arrival answers

1. For example: Christians believe in God as Trinity; Humanists believe this is our only life.
2. A source people trust to guide what they believe or do
3. A source people trust to guide what they believe or do.
4. No. It is a trusted source of guidance.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Amira reads what the Qur’an says about honesty — Sacred text. She turns to a holy book for guidance.
2. Joe talks it through with his priest — Religious leader. He trusts a leader’s advice.
3. Priya weighs the likely consequences for everyone — Reason. She uses evidence and reasoning.

Exit responses

Define “authority” in RE. A source people trust to guide what they believe or do.

Is authority in RE the same as being in charge? No. It is a trusted source of guidance.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 retrieval/misconception questions. Starter: 'Who or what can guide a difficult decision?' I Do: model sources such as sacred text, religious leader, tradition, reason, conscience and lived experience. We Do: match fictional decisions to possible sources of authority. You Do: choose one scenario and explain which source might guide the person and why. Exit ticket: define 'authority' in RE.

Look for

F: one scenario explained: which source might guide the person and why.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
