Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A The Day of Peace

The United Nations International Day of Peace is held on 21 September each year. It invites everyone, of any worldview, to act for peace.

Source: Authored summary of the United Nations observance

Limit: A day of peace does not end conflict. It asks people to act.

B A Christian example

Jesus taught “Blessed are the peacemakers”. Fictional case: a church runs a mediation group for neighbours in dispute.

Source: Authored summary; Matthew 5:9

Limit: Belief and practice vary between individuals and communities.

C A Muslim example

The greeting “As-salamu alaykum” means “peace be upon you”. Fictional case: a mosque hosts an open day so neighbours can meet.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Belief and practice vary between individuals and communities.

D A Humanist example

Humanists argue that peace comes through reason, dialogue and human rights. Fictional case: a Humanist group runs a schools debate on resolving conflict.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Belief and practice vary between individuals and communities.

Shared investigation

1. Inspect each example, then name the value behind the action.
2. Trace symbol → meaning → value for one example.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
