A Remembrance in the UK

On Remembrance Sunday and 11 November many people keep two minutes of silence. The poppy is a symbol of remembrance and of hope for a peaceful future.

Source: Authored summary; see Royal British Legion, The poppy

Limit: Wearing a poppy is a personal choice.

B A Christian response

Fictional source: "At our service we pray for those who died and for peace. I believe they are in God's care, which gives me hope."

Source: Authored source

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

C A Humanist response

Fictional source: "I don't pray, but I stand in silence. People live on in what they did and in our memories. Remembering should make us work to prevent war."

Source: Authored source

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

D Reflection is not worship

In class, reflection is quiet thinking. Nobody is asked to pray or to share a personal loss.

Source: Authored classroom rules

Limit: A quiet alternative is always available.
