Remembrance and peace across beliefs / LAUNCH_RE_A1_W06

Outcome: Compare how two worldviews may respond to remembrance or peace.

Evidence to retain: F: short comparison or reflection linked to evidence.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Use calm delivery; monitor emotional response; offer neutral alternative; explicitly distinguish educational reflection from worship.

Access and regulation

Sensitive third-person examples; no personal bereavement disclosure; comparison frame; symbol/ word choices; audio/verbal response.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Give one similarity or difference between the two responses.

Evidence: B A Christian response: Fictional source: "At our service we pray for those who died and for peace. I believe they are in God's care, which gives me hope." C A Humanist response: Fictional source: "I don't pray, but I stand in silence. People live on in what they did and in our memories. Remembering should make us work to prevent war."

Think aloud: For example: both keep silence, but only the Christian source prays.

Check: Is classroom reflection the same as worship? No. It is quiet thinking.

Arrival answers

1. "For example, Daniel believes everyone deserves dignity."
2. Taking time to remember people and events
3. For example: both keep silence, but only the Christian source prays.
4. No. It is quiet thinking.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Both keep silence to remember — Similarity. Cards B and C both describe remembering.
2. Prayer is part of remembering — Difference. Card B prays; card C does not.
3. Both hope for peace — Similarity. Both sources mention peace or preventing war.

Exit responses

Give one similarity or difference between the two responses. For example: both keep silence, but only the Christian source prays.

Is classroom reflection the same as worship? No. It is quiet thinking.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 retrieval questions. Starter: image prompt — what might remembrance mean? I Do: model two short worldview responses to remembrance/peace. We Do: sort similarities and differences in beliefs, symbols and actions. You Do: complete a short comparison or create a respectful remembrance/peace reflection linked to evidence. Exit ticket: one similarity or difference.

Look for

F: short comparison or reflection linked to evidence.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
