Belief and identity assessment / LAUNCH_RE_A1_W07

Outcome: Use evidence from the half-term to explain how beliefs and worldviews can influence identity, values or choices.

Evidence to retain: S: half-term assessment: written, structured or supported-response route.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Use normal access arrangements; clarify instructions without leading answers; record support used; retain assessment as evidence.

Access and regulation

Accessible assessment route; reduced reading load; enlarged text; scribe/reader where normal way of working; sentence starters; extra processing time.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use a different example for shared practice. During independent assessment, keep the agreed reader, scribe, glossary or response mode, but withdraw answer models and record prompts separately.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: What makes evidence relevant?

Evidence: B Selecting evidence: Relevant evidence answers this question. Ask: does it show a belief leading to a value, a choice or a sense of identity?

Think aloud: It directly answers the question being asked.

Check: Must every pupil write the same length of answer? No. Use your agreed access route.

Arrival answers

1. For example: both keep silence, but only the Christian source prays.
2. An example or fact that supports the point
3. It directly answers the question being asked.
4. No. Use your agreed access route.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Daniel chose care work — Belief influencing a choice. Dignity → care work.
2. Priya: “I want my life to be useful” — Belief influencing identity. How she sees herself.
3. Amira turns to the Qur’an on honesty — Authority influencing values. A sacred text guides her.

Exit responses

What makes evidence relevant? It directly answers the question being asked.

Must every pupil write the same length of answer? No. Use your agreed access route.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4-question picture/vocabulary retrieval. Starter: choose the strongest answer to a belief-and-identity question. I Do: model how to select relevant evidence. We Do: plan one answer together. You Do: complete the half-term assessment using written, structured, or supported-response route. Exit ticket: self-assess one strength and one next step.

Look for

S: half-term assessment: written, structured or supported-response route.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
