Comparing responses to a life question / LAUNCH_RE_A2_W05

Outcome: Compare how two worldviews respond to one important life question.

Evidence to retain: F: supported comparison with one similarity and one difference.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Model comparison language; check students are comparing ideas, not judging people; scaffold with 'Both... whereas...'.

Access and regulation

Choice of question; short sources; colour coding; one- similarity/one-difference minimum; audio/typing option.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Give the strongest similarity between the two responses.

Evidence: B A Muslim response: Authored fictional Muslim profile: the speaker connects care for others with teachings about wishing others well and with zakat. They explain giving as a responsibility to God and to people in need. C A Humanist response: Authored fictional Humanist profile: the speaker uses empathy and considers consequences for people. They want to reduce suffering and help others, without grounding that choice in a belief in God.

Think aloud: Both support helping others and reducing harm, although they explain their reasons differently.

Check: Can two sources stand for two whole worldviews? No. They are two individuals.

Arrival answers

1. Both: the Golden Rule and Humanist empathy.
2. A question about meaning, purpose or how to live
3. Both support helping others and reducing harm, although they explain their reasons differently.
4. No. They are two individuals.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Giving linked to duty to God — Muslim profile. Card B connects giving with religious responsibility.
2. Reasoning through empathy and consequences — Humanist profile. Card C explains this non-religious motivation.
3. Wanting to help people in need — Both. Both profiles support caring action for different reasons.

Exit responses

Give the strongest similarity between the two responses. Both support helping others and reducing harm, although they explain their reasons differently.

Can two sources stand for two whole worldviews? No. They are two individuals.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 retrieval questions. Starter: choose one 'big question' such as 'What makes a good life?' or 'How should we treat others?' I Do: model a two-viewpoint comparison. We Do: sort statements into worldview A / worldview B / both. You Do: complete a supported comparison using one similarity and one difference. Exit ticket: strongest similarity/difference.

Look for

F: supported comparison with one similarity and one difference.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
