Developing my resilience piece

Weekly outcome: Create my resilience-themed piece.

I can develop my piece and explain my changes.

Today I can

I can continue my piece from the real next step.

I can check it against my intended idea.

I can log my decisions, changes and actual stage.

Words to use

resilience — Finding a way forward, with help or a change of plan.

intention — The idea or effect you want to show.

decision — A choice you make.

revise — Change part of a plan or piece.

One worked example

Teacher example only: I finished the route. I tested a longer gap but kept the short gap because I wanted a clear, steady turn.

Your idea may differ. Use your own words and choices.

Choose one task route

Supported

Read your next step with an adult.

Make or direct one small part.

Choose what to keep or change.

Confirm what is finished and what comes next.

Independent

Continue from the real first version.

Check one feature against your intention.

Explain your keep-or-change decision.

Log the actual stage and next step.

Aspire

Complete the core making task.

Compare the first version and a new test.

Explain which effect fits the intention.

Use or decline feedback with a reason.

Use one route at a time. You may change route with the adult.

Activity cards

Use these as prompts. Complete your response in your book, arts log or chosen art form.

1 0 to 15 seconds

Show Monday first version beside the plan and read the real next step.

2 15 to 30 seconds

Complete the next section or final actions.

3 30 to 45 seconds

Try one small change in the gap or pause. Compare both real versions.

4 45 to 60 seconds

Choose a version, explain why and record whether the actual piece is complete.

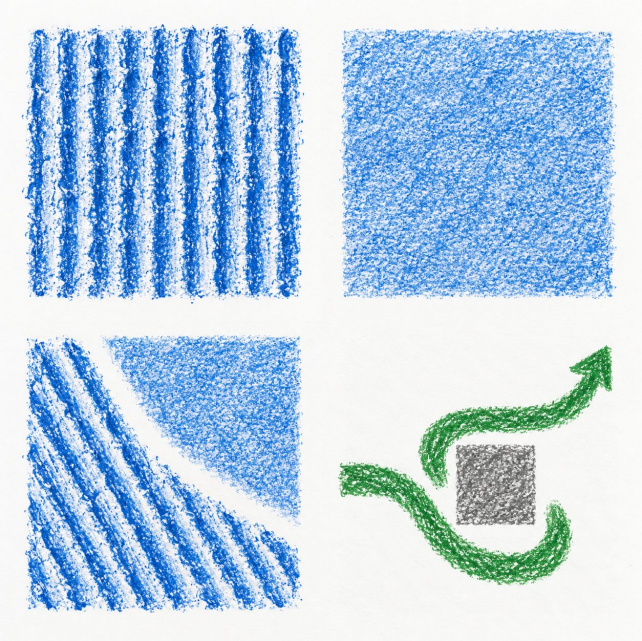

Your own making

Make your own choice. Keep or change one feature and give your reason.

Develop or direct a short silent sequence. Staff witness the final order, pauses, changes, help and pupil meaning. No recorded media is required.

First version and chosen version

Original class examples. These are not pupil work or evidence.

First version

A line reaches a block and starts a turn.

The ending has not been made.

Chosen version

The new route continues into open space. A pause or gap stays short.

The maker chose a short pause after comparing both versions.

Say what you notice. The maker can choose a different meaning.
