Teacher and cover plan

BUILD Spring 1 Week 6 Tuesday 9 February 2027 P1 Year A Explore

My finished arts review

Weekly outcome verbatim: Add a review to my arts log.

BUILD Weekly Spring row 93. Year A. Resilience & Change. Current level Explore.

40 minutes: Arrival 3; Starter 3; I do 6; We do 6; Create 14; Review 5; Exit 3. Tidy in the final two Review minutes. Source notes, demonstrations, routes and extra depth fit inside these stages.

Prepare

Actual arts log and own work from Weeks 1 to 5, including the Week 3 plan where relevant.

Six-outcome evidence sheet; keep actual dates, locations, pupil words and support.

Book and ordinary writing tools if available; oral or signed responses and adult scribing are valid.

Picture prompt strip from the accepted pack, read with its labels. No new art materials are needed.

Catch up

Use the actual available evidence. Date any new review or research today. Mark unavailable earlier work as a gap and never reconstruct it as old evidence.

Assessment

Use each pupil’s real evidence with the six exact outcomes from rows 88 to 93. Choose one status per row and add dates, locations and a comment. Record a gap without judging the pupil or filling it with a class model.

Arrival and starter

BUILD Spring 1 Week 6 Tuesday 9 February 2027 P1 Year A Explore

Arrival 3 minutes

Say and do: Recover Monday’s review, the actual pieces or witness notes and the six-outcome grid. If absent last time, use an honest review of the available work today. Keep missing earlier evidence marked as a gap. Do not let the pupil’s review become a test of memory.

Look for: The pupil identifies a real review starting point and a manageable task.

Materials-free route: Read actual prior notes or use today’s labelled recollection. Give time to confirm or correct the account.

Check and response: A review written today must use today’s date. Earlier work keeps its original date where known.

Starter 3 minutes

Say and do: Revisit the eye or ear, stars and tool. Ask the pupil to choose the most useful prompt for their review. A next step is a small action, such as trying a different gap or practising a pause. It is not a promise to be perfect.

Look for: The pupil chooses a prompt and identifies a possible small next action.

Materials-free route: Read the prompt labels aloud and accept a spoken or gestured choice.

Check and response: A feasible next step names something to do. Try a softer start is clearer than be the best.

Modelling and shared practice

BUILD Spring 1 Week 6 Tuesday 9 February 2027 P1 Year A Explore

I do 6 minutes

Say and do: Use yesterday’s adult model or make and date a fresh one. Read: I made the pause longer. Compare the actual versions. Then deliberately read a mistaken scribe sentence: I made every sound louder. Ask the maker to correct it. Replace it with the confirmed wording. Model a final next step and show how one grid row links to the real dated example, while an unseen row stays not yet seen.

Look for: The adult demonstrates checking, correction and honest evidence selection without completing pupil rows for them.

Materials-free route: Use a real short silent demonstration and oral comparison. Give an agreed signal to stop the read-back at an inaccurate word.

Check and response: Check: Who owns the review, the adult who writes or the pupil whose ideas it records? The pupil. Ask them to correct the example.

We do 6 minutes

Say and do: Use the adult example and a practice grid row outside the pupil grid. Hinge: We cannot find any earlier record. Should we A tick shown anyway, or B mark not yet seen and say what is missing? Choose B. Distinguish a gap from a failure. A pupil may have taken part even when a record is unavailable. Do not assume either completion or non-participation.

Look for: The pupil recognises that honest assessment uses actual evidence and can leave an outcome unconfirmed.

Materials-free route: Give the two choices orally. Use a spoken status and scribed comment if ticks are inaccessible.

Check and response: If A is chosen, ask a parallel check: Can a blank folder show the change we want to review? No. We can make a truthful note and choose a next step.

Independent task and evidence

BUILD Spring 1 Week 6 Tuesday 9 February 2027 P1 Year A Explore

Create 14 minutes

Say and do: Use about seven minutes to complete and check the pupil’s review. It may be short, scribed, signed or drawn with an explanation. Use the remaining seven minutes to revisit rows 1 to 3 and review rows 4 to 6. For each outcome, choose one status and add a specific evidence location, date and short comment. Row 6 refers to this actual review. Retain support and pupil words. Keep one next step achievable. Do not manufacture missing earlier work or assess every practical skill again in fourteen minutes.

Look for: A dated pupil-owned review is added to the log. All six verbatim outcomes have an honest status and comment, including gaps. No adult model substitutes for pupil evidence.

Materials-free route: Conduct the review orally with real records and the pupil’s chosen words. An adult transcribes and reads back at the next opportunity; until then mark the written log as pending.

Check and response: A valid entry can be: I used colour for a calm idea. I changed a gap after my review. I learned to test a choice. Next I will try a bigger shape. The pupil must supply their own true details.

Review and exit

Review 5 minutes

Say and do: Invite a private share with the supporting adult. Check that the words belong to the pupil and that the evidence matches. A public display is not needed. Record actual support and any unfinished item. Use the final two minutes to tidy and store the log.

Look for: The pupil confirms the review and can identify its evidence and next step using their preferred response mode.

Materials-free route: Use a private oral or signed review, with adult read-back of any record.

Check and response: The assessment is of what the evidence shows and what the pupil can explain. Handwriting, speech volume and public confidence are not arts success criteria.

Exit 3 minutes

Say and do: Record the real location of the review and the pupil’s next step. Confirm that the six-week grid has comments rather than automatic ticks. Spring 1 is complete as a teaching sequence; this does not certify an award or fill an evidence gap.

Look for: The pupil and adult can find the final review and understand one next step.

Materials-free route: Record the location and confirmed next step in a precise witness note, marking any transcription still pending.

Check and response: Completed teaching, completed evidence and an award decision are different. Keep each statement true.

Access and adult support

Cognition And Learning

Show one prompt at a time. Model a short example, then fade to a sentence start. Revisit the same words and use the actual work beside the prompt. Chunk the six-week grid into two groups of three. Allow thinking time.

Communication And Interaction

Read all prompts aloud. Accept pointing, signing, speaking, drawing or pupil-directed adult recording. Offer a choice before an open question. Read scribed words back and let the pupil correct them.

SEMH

Keep review private and about choices in the work. Use invented or abstract ideas and avoid questions about personal adversity. No grades, rankings or public performance. Offer a calm pause and an agreed return cue.

Sensory And Physical

Offer a seated, silent route and a large print view. Use a description or precise witnessed sequence where a visual piece is inaccessible. The pupil can direct adult handling. Keep actual support visible in the record.

EAL

Plan in any language. Read the source note or prompt slowly and check meaning. Accept oral ideas before writing. Translate with support where available while retaining the pupil’s intended meaning.

Prompt ladder

Point to the place or instruction. Ask a short question. Rephrase. Offer a scaffold or choice. Model the first step only, then return the task.

TA focus

I do: Point to the evidence or source. Read the short frame and check meaning.

We do: Offer a brief question or choice, then wait. Model only the first step if needed.

Create: Scribe the pupil’s own words, read them back and record the real support. Keep adult judgement separate.

Where this leads

Artists use reviews and research to make choices and explain their work. These habits also support clear communication in many kinds of work.
