We do

Hidden cue coach

Stay seated. One partner looks at the cue strip. The other looks at their own blank card.

The coach tells or signs the four cues in order. The maker draws them without seeing the strip.

Check the cards. Swap jobs. An adult can guide or draw. You may pass.

Points: 1 team point for all four cues in order. 1 more for a clear start and stop cue. Every team can score. Try again.

We do

Our shared task

Agree the four-part order: start cue, sound pattern, artwork display and stop cue.

Place the cue strip where everyone in the group can see it.

Rehearse the sequence up to the checkpoint.

Ask an observer for one specific comment on cue clarity or timing.

Test that single change while keeping the rest of the sequence constant.

Points: 1 team point for all four cues in order. 1 more for a clear start and stop cue.

Supported · Plan your role and cue

Choose your contribution with an adult: sound pattern, cue card or artwork display.

Practise starting on the triangle cue and stopping on the square cue.

Listen to one suggestion from an adult or partner.

Try that single change and check if the cue is clearer.

In your book, sketch your cue and change to keep for Lesson 2.

Points: Practice only. No team points in this part.

Independent · Test cues and plan the sequence

Agree your role in the group sequence and mark the start and stop cues.

Rehearse your contribution in order with your group.

Invite one specific piece of feedback on cue visibility or timing.

Refine that single feature and repeat the run to check the effect.

In your book, record your cue plan and refinement for Lesson 2.

Points: Practice only. No team points in this part.

Aspire · Aspire challenge: compare two cue arrangements

Rehearse your contribution using two different cue placements or pause lengths.

Keep the sequence, roles and stop signal constant across both trials.

Compare how accurately the group follows each trial.

Explain which trial was clearer for the listener using an observed clue.

In your book, record both trials and your reason for Lesson 2.

Points: Practice only. No team points in this part.

Independent (You do)

Choice · Choose how to plan your role

Choose your mode: perform a part, direct the visual cues or arrange the artwork.

Rehearse the start and stop cues with a partner or adult.

Select one piece of feedback to test.

Repeat the short section and check what changed.

In your book, note or sketch the refinement for Lesson 2.

Points: Practice only. No team points in this part.

Review and improve

Check your recorded role and cue plan in your book.

Use one specific tip to refine the position or timing of a cue.

Test the adjusted cue once and note what improved.

Edit in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode.

Optional: show or tell an adult what you changed after feedback. You may use your usual response mode or pass.

Points: Practice only. No team points in this part.
