Key words & studio mat — Analysing curated spaces and audience impact

Pathway: SUMMIT · Week 4 Part 2 · Big question: How do curatorial choices — scale, lighting angle, sightlines, and framing — shape audience meaning in an exhibition?

Key words for ART_LAUNCH_A1_W04_P2 (SUMMIT)

RAKING LIGHT — A directional light source shone across a surface from a low side angle to throw every bump and recess into deep shadow.

CURATORIAL INTENT — The deliberate mood and visual journey a curator designs through spacing, height, and lighting.

JUXTAPOSITION — Placing two artworks side by side so their scales, textures, or forms highlight each other.

INTERPRETATION PANEL — The wall text and labels that frame the context and technical process for visitors.

SPATIAL HIERARCHY — Using central placement, breathing space, and spotlights to signal key focal works.

Sentence starters for studio talk

- I chose this tool so my mark looks...
- The strongest dark and light contrast is...
- Next time I will test...