People and acts of care

Every person and family in these stories is made up.

One made-up family	Another made-up family
A young person lives with one parent. The parent makes time to listen.	A young person lives with two parents. They help with a task.
A young person lives with a grandparent. The grandparent gives time and care.	A young person lives with a carer. The carer asks what help is wanted.

Families can look different. Which acts in the stories show care?

Lesson resource · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0: free for classroom use, share and adapt with credit, no resale

Cards for the fictional case

Which act could help the young person in each story?

Story card	Story card
A. A young person needs time to talk.	B. A young person is stuck on a task.
C. A young person asks for some space.	D. A young person asks a question. An adult laughs.
E. A young person wants to choose. An adult picks every time.	F. A young person needs help. The first adult is busy.

Some acts show care. Some acts need to change. What act could help?

Lesson resource · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0: free for classroom use, share and adapt with credit, no resale

A support map

This young person needs help to start a task. A tutor and a support adult are there.

Role cards to cut	What this adult can do
Tutor	Show one small step
Support adult	Help the person ask a question

Care cards to cut

Listen and give time	Show one small step
Give space	Ask what help is wanted

Map for the made-up young person

The young person needs	An adult who could help	A caring act
Help to start a task	_____	_____
Help if the first adult is busy	_____	_____

Why could this act help the young person?

_____

Every answer is about the made-up young person.

Lesson resource · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0: free for classroom use, share and adapt with credit, no resale