Watch me do it:	Watch me do it: I take a card. It shows a building with a cross on top. Is it a book or a place? It is a building. So it is a place. I put it on the place side. Now I look at the word bank. A cross is a clue for the word Christian. I match the card to that word. This place is a church.
Now watch a second card:	Now watch a second card: a book with a cross on the cover. It has pages. So it is a book. I put it on the book side. The cross is the same clue. I match it to the word Christian too. Now the church and the book sit next to the same word. One faith. One place. One book.
What we do not say:	What we do not say: “that one is best”, or “that one is odd”. Every faith on the table has a book and a place. We match them. We do not rank them.

What we know about special books and places

2) Many faiths have a special book. People read it and learn from it.

3) Many faiths have a special place. People meet there and pray there.

4) A church is a special place. A mosque is a special place. So is a gurdwara. So is a synagogue.

One card, two piles?

Here is a card. It shows a scroll. Two people put it in two different piles. Answer A: “Place. You see it in a building.” Answer B: “Book. It has words to read.”

Try it in your head: a building with a dome and a tall thin tower. Book, or place? Hold your answer. Do not say it yet.

We Do 1: Sort the cards. Then match them.

Card 1: a building with a dome and a tall thin tower. Book or place? Which faith word?

Card 2: a scroll on two wooden rollers. Book or place? Which faith word?

Card 3: a building with an orange flag on a tall pole by the door. Book or place? Which faith word?

We Do 2: Match one full set together

We take one faith word. Everyone finds the book card and the place card that match it. Then we hold up our two cards at the same time. Everyone matches before anyone says a card out loud. The faith word for this one is the word Jewish, so we look for a scroll and a building. Nobody is going to be told they are wrong. We are practising the match, not testing anyone.

The model

Watch me do it: I take a card. It shows a building with a cross on top. Is it a book or a place? It is a building. So it is a place. I put it on the place side. Now I look at the word bank. A cross is a clue for the word Christian. I match the card to that word. This place is a church.

Now watch a second card: a book with a cross on the cover. It has pages. So it is a book. I put it on the book side. The cross is the same clue. I match it to the word Christian too. Now the church and the book sit next to the same word. One faith. One place. One book.

What we do not say: “that one is best”, or “that one is odd”. Every faith on the table has a book and a place. We match them. We do not rank them.

Check yourself

- Check yourself: did you use a clue from the card, not a guess?
- Check yourself: is your clue about the card, not about a person?
- Check yourself: do your book and your place sit by the same faith word?
- Check yourself: could a person from any faith read your record and feel it was fair?

From the lesson sheet

A special book, a special place

SoW: 'BUILD Weekly - Autumn'!C61 — "Recognise a special book/place for a faith."

Learning objective: I can sort cards into books and places. I can match a book and a place to a faith word. I can say one thing a special book or a special place is for.

No personal disclosure is required. Every task can be done with the picture cards on the table. Nobody is asked what they believe.

Sort and match record

Look → sort into book or place → match to a faith word → say the clue.

The first row is done for you, from the set we did together. It is in italics so you know it is not yours. Fill in as many rows below it as you can.

Independent Work – Standard

Two faith words, each with a book and a place matched, and a written clue for each.

Two faith words. For each one, match a book and a place. Write one clue for each match.

Exit Ticket – Standard

1) Read one set to a partner or to an adult. Say the faith word, the book and the place. The listener says back the clue they heard, in their own words.

2) Did the listener hear a different clue from the one you meant? Then change one word in yours. That change is your influence. It belongs to you, not to them.

3) Did the listener hear just what you meant? Write that down too. A clue that already works is worth noting.

Lundy Loop — this lesson

SPACE stays available. VOICE is received. AUDIENCE names back exactly. INFLUENCE changes one real next action.

Space	means you get room to join in.
Voice	means you get to say it.
Audience	means someone really listens.
