My bench steps and food label

Use the job and food checked by the adult. Do one step at a time.

My job _____ Food _____ Date _____

Step	What I do	Done
1	Check my job. Ask the adult what comes first.	☐
2	Wash hands. Clean the bench. Use clean tools.	☐
3	Make or finish the food. Follow the checked recipe steps.	☐
4	Use the timer set with the adult. Pause when it ends.	☐
5	Let the adult check the food before I pack it.	☐
6	Put it in a clean pack. Copy the checked label.	☐
7	Ask for the final check. Clear up when it is safe.	☐

Timer for my step _____ Adult sets it with me _____

My job is __. My next step is __.

_____

If I am not sure, I stop and ask.

This mat helps with the checked recipe. The adult checks heat, tools and food. A seated pack or check job is fine.

Made by Matt · © Matt Roper · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0: free for classroom use, share and adapt with credit, no resale

My real food label master

Use the packs for the food made today. Ask the adult to check each part.

Name of the food _____

Date or batch ID _____ My name or ID _____

Full ingredients list

List all food used. Include each topping and what is in it.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Copy the full list from the adult check. Make the allergens bold.

Other wording the adult has checked _____

Adult release check

Adult: check actual packs, full ingredients, toppings, allergens, cross-contact and required label wording. A tick list alone is not a full label. Do not make a free-from claim without a justified assessment.

Checked by _____ Date _____ Item/pack ID _____

Label matches this item ☐ Yes ☐ Hold for a further check

If the food or pack changes, ask for a fresh check. Keep the label with the right food.

If a customer asks about food, say: I will ask the adult to check.

Made by Matt · © Matt Roper · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0: free for classroom use, share and adapt with credit, no resale