Suffering and hope in Christianity

Investigate ideas of suffering and hope in a faith.

Resilience & Change

Our investigation

What does this tell us?

What gives hope here?

You may point, speak, pass or ask for a quiet pause.

A Christian teaching

Many Christians believe Jesus shows God's care.

Some find hope in prayer, Jesus' presence and care from others.

Faith does not remove every difficult feeling.

Friends in a storm

Jesus and his friends are in a boat.

Strong wind and waves come.

His friends feel afraid and wake him for help.

Calm in the story

Jesus speaks to the wind and water.

In this Christian story, the wind stops and water becomes calm.

His friends are amazed.

What does this tell us?

The friends face ____.

We know this because ____.

Some Christians may understand this as ____.

What gives hope here?

Hope comes from ____.

The story shows ____.

Some people find hope while a problem remains.

Your short response

Find one detail about difficulty.

Explain what gives hope.

Link it to the Christian teaching.

Write 2 or 3 short sentences or use a scribe.

Our exit

Show one detail that gives hope.

Explain why.

You may keep personal beliefs and experiences private.