Card B Jesus calms a storm

Jesus and his friends were in a boat. Jesus was asleep. A strong wind blew. Waves splashed into the boat. His friends felt afraid. They woke Jesus and asked for help.

Jesus spoke to the wind and water. In this Christian story, the wind stopped. The water became calm. Jesus asked his friends about fear and trust. They were amazed. They wondered who Jesus was.

An original simple retelling of a story in the Gospel of Mark. No scripture wording is reproduced.
