Source and exact outcome

Compare how different communities celebrate. From BUILD Weekly - Autumn!B54/C54, originally Week 2, moved to taught Week 5 by the owner. Thursday 3 December 2026, P3. Theme: Identity & Belonging. The separate remembrance move is C57 to W2; C55 remains W3. This is formative evidence, not a qualification decision.

Expected similarities

Both examples meet to mark a special day, share stories and allow joining or watching. Any one accurate shared feature is valid. The model is “Both groups share stories.” Pupils must refer to evidence from both A and B.

Expected differences

Compare like with like. Featured activity: in A some sing; in B some draw pictures. Decoration: A uses paper lanterns; B uses cloth flags. Either paired difference is valid. Accept selected labels, exact scribing or a clear drawn/pointed comparison. A feature from one card alone is not yet a comparison.

Limits and respectful wording

These are fictional examples, not claims about named communities. Do not infer that everyone takes part in the same way, or that A never draws or B never sings. The cards highlight activities; missing information is not evidence of never. No ranking of groups or request for personal belief is needed.

Aspire model and misconceptions

A second comparison can use the decoration pair. An unanswered question can be “What story do they share?” No answer is supplied, so do not invent one. If a pupil compares lanterns with stories, return to one shared category. If they say “Different means worse,” explain that different ways can be treated with equal respect.

Record only what happened

Code	Similarity and paired difference	Source use and actual help
B01	_____	_____
B02	_____	_____
B03	_____	_____
B04	_____	_____

Use B04 only if a fourth pupil attends. Leave absent pupils blank. Keep each response individual, even after shared matching.

Private check

Look for one accurate similarity, one difference about a matched feature, and evidence from A and B. Pointing is valid when the pupil selects both relevant lines. If an adult supplies the comparison, record that support rather than implying an independent outcome.

Scribing and access

Word bank, sentence starters and visible model stay on every task. Scribe exact words or labels, read back privately for keep/change and record help. No public questioning or required reading aloud. Offer usual aids, supported observation or an agreed supervised pause.

Feedback and evidence

Use HUM-BUILD-A2-W05-E1. Offer authentic words or choices to the Communication portfolio. R follows actual audience reply, one NS and the pupil’s own response; E follows actual banking. [AWARD] / [QUAL] checks remain separate. Do not assess personal belief, willingness to disclose or performance in front of peers.
