Caring ideas and record examples

Pink supported edition

Invented choices from earlier learning.

A Say thank you Thank a person for some help.
B Offer a turn Offer a turn with a shared item.
C Offer help Ask if help is wanted with a small safe task.

Use a plan or an action you did.
A new plan is okay if you label it as new.

Caring ideas and record examples continued

Pink supported edition

Three more invented choices.

D Put an item back Put back a shared item I used, if it is safe.
E Give time to speak Let a person finish what they want to say.
F Offer a kind drawing Offer a kind drawing, if it is wanted.

No home action was needed.
Ask first when needed. People may say no.

Caring ideas and record examples continued

Pink supported edition

A planned action

An invented example about no real person.

I planned to offer a turn with a shared item. It could help someone in my group have a go. I felt unsure about my plan.

The action was planned.
It does not say the action happened.

One short record

I planned to offer a turn so someone in my group could have a go.

Caring ideas and record examples continued

Pink supported edition

An action that happened

An invented example about no real person.

I offered a turn with a shared item. Another person chose to have a go. I felt calm.

This person records their own feeling.
Another person may feel a different way.