Staff answers & diagnostic guide — Show one part, say why you made it

Pathway: BASE · Week 6 Part 1 · Big question: How can we show one part of our artwork and say why we made it?

Starter answer & explanation

Question: Do you have to talk about every single mark on your page for ten minutes?

Correct: No, just point to ONE clear part and say one short short line — Yes. Showing one strong part clearly is what artists do.

Guided team check (We do) answers

Q1: What should the rest of the table do. At the same time one person is showing their artwork? -> Keep hands still, look at the pointer arrow, and listen kindly (Yes. Quiet eyes on the artwork help the speaker feel calm.)

Q2: What if a speaker feels shy and prefers not to speak out loud to the whole room? -> They can share with just one partner or point. At the same time a buddy reads their strip (Yes. Pointing and partner-sharing count 100%.)

Q3: Which word joins 'what I did' to 'why I did it' in our short line? -> Because (Yes. 'I used dark pen BECAUSE I wanted a bold edge.')

Question: What two things do we share when we talk about our artwork today?

Correct: One part we made and why we made it that way — Yes. Show one part and give one clear reason.
