TA studio brief — Show one part, say why you made it

Pathway: BASE · Week 6 Part 1 · Big question: How can we show one part of our artwork and say why we made it?

TA practical setup & focus

Offer 1-to-1 or pair sharing first for pupils who find group speaking stressful; pointing to the arrow. At the same time an adult reads their card is fully valid.

Studio kit: Fill ind Week 2/4 self artworks,Week 5 log pages, card pointer arrows, speaking prompt strips, display easels

Key words to prompt

• share: To show your work to others and talk about it.

• reason: Why you picked that shape, colour, or mark.

• pointer: A small card arrow that shows the part you mean.

• listen: To look quietly at the speaker's artwork. At the same time they talk.

• proud: Feeling pleased with the care you put into your work.

Supported route steps

1. Stick a small card pointer arrow next to your best mark on your artwork.

2. Circle one tool word. One mood word on your speaking card.

3. Show your work to one partner or an adult. Point to the arrow.

4. Say or read: 'I used [tool] to make it [mood].'

Check: Pointer arrow placed. Choice shared with a partner or adult.

Review & exit support

Exit question: What two things do we share when we talk about our artwork today?

Staff note: Staff preparation only: review a short clip on facilitating low-anxiety table art critiques using physical pointer arrows.
