Suffering and hope source cards

White standard edition

Card A A Christian teaching

Many Christians believe Jesus shows God’s care. In this story he brings calm to a storm. Christians describe this as a miracle. Some find hope in prayer and in believing Jesus is with people in hard times. People may also find support in their church community. Faith can offer hope while difficulties remain.

A teaching summary written for this lesson. No scripture wording is reproduced.

What does this tell us

Use a detail from the card.

What gives hope here

Explain your idea using the card.

Suffering and hope source cards continued

White standard edition

Card B Jesus calms a storm

Jesus and his friends set off across the water in a boat. Jesus rested at the back of the boat and fell asleep. A strong wind began to blow. Waves splashed into the boat. His friends felt afraid. They woke Jesus and asked him for help. They did not understand why he was still resting.

Then Jesus spoke to the wind and water. In this Christian story, the wind stopped and the water became calm. Jesus asked his friends about their fear and trust. His friends were amazed. They wondered who Jesus was, because even the wind and water had become still.

An original simple retelling of a story in the Gospel of Mark. No scripture wording is reproduced.

What does this tell us

Use a detail from the card.

What gives hope here

Explain your idea using the card.

Suffering and hope source cards continued

White standard edition

Card C A possible meaning

The friends are afraid and ask Jesus for help. Some Christians understand the story as showing Jesus’ care and power. This may give them hope when they face hardship. This is one possible reading of the story. Christians may understand its meaning in different ways.

A possible interpretation written for this lesson.

What does this tell us

Use a detail from the card.

What gives hope here

Explain your idea using the card.