Ask for private help with a word. No reading aloud is required.

Word	Meaning
cause	A reason why something happened.
long-term cause	A problem or condition that built up over time.
trigger	An event that helps set off action.
consequence	An effect or result of an event or action.
short term	During or near the time of the campaign.
long term	Continuing into later years.
boycott	Not using or buying something as a protest.
segregation	Rules that keep groups apart unfairly.
legal case	An issue taken to a court for a decision.
link	An explanation of how one thing affected another.
limit	What a change did not achieve.
MIA	The group that helped lead the bus boycott.

Because gives a reason. As a result introduces an effect. However adds a limit. Later tells us about time; it does not prove a cause.
