Word	Meaning
significance	How and why a person or event matters in history.
criterion	A test used to make a judgement. Criteria means more than one test.
evidence	A fact or source used to support a claim.
evaluate	Weigh evidence and limits to reach a view.
score	A number that sums up your judgement using a scale.
limit	What a fact or claim cannot show.
boycott	Not using or buying something as a protest.
segregation	Rules that keep groups apart unfairly.
plaintiff	A person who brings a legal case to court.
remembrance	Keeping a person or event in public memory.
revealed	Showed us something we can explain.
civil rights	Rights to fair treatment and equal protection under law.

Use because to give a reason. Use however to keep a limit in view. You may plan in any language.
