Staff pages begin here. Print pupil routes selectively; keep answers separate.

Scheme of work

BUILD_A1_W05; My family my community and special people; SOW page 4

Exact outcome: Show respect for similarities and differences linked to Black History Month.

Teaching and application: Use a carefully chosen person/source and a shared evidence discussion. Independently connect one contribution to respect or belonging; finish with two exit questions.

Assessment evidence: F: source-linked response and exit check.

Forty minute sequence

Time	Stage
0–4	Arrival route
4–7	Starter and visual enquiry
7–13	Explicit model and optional captioned film
13–20	Shared interactive activity
20–22	Method check
22–34	Independent application
34–37	Review and improve
37–40	Two exit questions

Access and assessment

Use one-step instructions, symbols and a model first. Offer talk, point, draw, type or write. Reduce the number of choices; extend by asking for a reason or a second example. Adults prompt the first response then fade support.

Routes are flexible. Check the learner can begin within two minutes. Use reading, typing, exact scribing or oral responses without lowering the Humanities thinking. Fade prompts. Record what was independent. For a summative outcome, rehearse on a practice example and keep the final response individual.

Teacher answers and scaffolding

Core and exit answers

That he was paid as a trumpeter at the English court in 1507.

No. A payment record does not reveal his whole life.

Shared task feedback

Blanke was paid for music → Supported. The record documents payment as a trumpeter.

Every person had the same experience → Not established. One record cannot show everyone's life.

We need evidence for a display → Good practice. An accurate caption recognises the actual contribution.

Arrival answers

Supported: 1. A: the trumpet. The payment source records his work. 2. That he was paid as a trumpeter at the English court in 1507. 3. Something a person adds or does 4. No. A payment record does not reveal his whole life.

Standard: 1. A: the trumpet. The payment source records his work. 2. That he was paid as a trumpeter at the English court in 1507. 3. Something a person adds or does Accept a relevant example. 4. No. A payment record does not reveal his whole life.

Stretch: 1. A: the trumpet. The payment source records his work. It cannot establish a real person's whole experience or belief. 2. That he was paid as a trumpeter at the English court in 1507. 3. Something a person adds or does Accept a supported connection. 4. No. A payment record does not reveal his whole life.

Stage scaffolding

Starter, model and shared task: Start with the source title and date. Find one explicit detail. Label origin, content and a claim the source can support.

Further challenge: Weigh purpose, missing voices and the question being asked.

Review: check the exact required outcome before improving presentation. Retain first and revised responses when useful.

UAS mapping before submission

The scheme provides no approved unit codes. The centre must select the exact unit and check every requirement. These resources prepare evidence; task completion does not establish an award.

Calendar and editing

Schedule Black History Month, remembrance, Human Rights Day, Holocaust Memorial Day and International Women's Day against the school calendar. The SOW sequence controls week numbering. Word text and tables are editable; HTML is the editable lesson source. Recheck layout and keep source details and answers aligned after changes.
