Migration and identity in modern Britain / LAUNCH_A1_W01

Outcome: Investigate migration and identity in modern Britain through sources.

Evidence to retain: F: source annotation, evidence and judgement.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Authored paraphrases of real records. Reasons and experiences differed. Migration is not new to Britain; these cases are selected examples.

Access and regulation

Pre-teach terminology and model evidence use. Chunk sources and data; provide an initial frame, then reduce it. Maintain normal access arrangements. Extend by weighing limitations, alternative explanations and evidence quality. Adults support access and evidence selection without supplying answers.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

Use sensitive content warnings where relevant. Do not ask for family details or personal experiences.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: What can the telegram establish about motives?

Evidence: A 11 May 1948 telegram: The Acting Governor of Jamaica told the Colonial Secretary that men had booked passages hoping for employment in Britain.

Think aloud: It records officials' report of employment hopes among some travellers.

Check: Can it establish how every traveller understood their identity? No. It does not record all their personal views.

Arrival answers

1. Moving to live in another place
2. Moving to live in another place
3. It records officials' report of employment hopes among some travellers.
4. No. It does not record all their personal views.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Official report of work hopes — Establishes. This is recorded in the message.
2. Work was a motive for some — Suggests. It is a supported interpretation of the reported hopes.
3. Everyone felt the same identity — Cannot establish. Those personal views are absent.

Exit responses

What can the telegram establish about motives? It records officials' report of employment hopes among some travellers.

Can it establish how every traveller understood their identity? No. It does not record all their personal views.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Model provenance, content and purpose; annotate a source, select evidence and judge usefulness or interpretation.

Look for

F: source annotation, evidence and judgement.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
