Migration causes and consequences / LAUNCH_A1_W02

Outcome: Explain causes and consequences of migration linked to Black History Month.

Evidence to retain: F: causal explanation and two exit questions.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Authored paraphrases of real records. Reasons and experiences differed. Migration is not new to Britain; these cases are selected examples.

Access and regulation

Pre-teach terminology and model evidence use. Chunk sources and data; provide an initial frame, then reduce it. Maintain normal access arrangements. Extend by weighing limitations, alternative explanations and evidence quality. Adults support access and evidence selection without supplying answers.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

Use sensitive content warnings where relevant. Do not ask for family details or personal experiences.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Why is one explanation for all migration inadequate?

Evidence: A 11 May 1948 telegram: The Acting Governor of Jamaica told the Colonial Secretary that men had booked passages hoping for employment in Britain. C 8 August 1972 Cabinet record: British ministers discussed Idi Amin's order that Asian British-passport holders leave Uganda within three months.

Think aloud: The sources show different reasons and constraints, including work hopes and forced departure.

Check: What is the limit of using D as consequence evidence? It records a response that was requested, not evidence of its delivery.

Arrival answers

1. It records officials' report of employment hopes among some travellers.
2. Moving to live in another place
3. The sources show different reasons and constraints, including work hopes and forced departure.
4. It records a response that was requested, not evidence of its delivery.

Shared activity reasoning

1. 1972 expulsion order in C — Cause. The order forced the targeted Ugandan Asians to leave.
2. Resettlement in Britain discussed in D — Consequence. D concerns people resettled after the 1972 expulsion.
3. Support visits requested in 1973 in D — Planned response. A request is evidence of a plan, not proof that every visit happened.

Exit responses

Why is one explanation for all migration inadequate? The sources show different reasons and constraints, including work hopes and forced departure.

What is the limit of using D as consequence evidence? It records a response that was requested, not evidence of its delivery.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Construct causal chains with source evidence; rehearse reasoning and write a connected explanation.

Look for

F: causal explanation and two exit questions.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
