

Teacher card

Protest and rights on a timeline / GROW_S1_W01

Outcome: Place key protest and rights events on a timeline.

Evidence to retain: F: book task, questioning and exit check.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

No segregation simulation, forced role-play or repetition of racist abuse. Explain the discriminatory system clearly and recognise collective action.

Access and regulation

Chunk sources and tasks; pre-teach vocabulary with images. Offer sentence stems, organisers, oral rehearsal and typing. Start with one modelled example; extend through a second source, comparison or supported judgement. Check the learner can begin within two minutes, then fade prompts.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

Use sensitive content warnings where relevant. Do not ask for family details or personal experiences.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: What happened after the 1955 arrest?

Evidence: B 1 December 1955: Parks was arrested after refusing to give up her seat to a white man on a Montgomery bus. Her action helped trigger a sustained community boycott. C 1956 change: The boycott and legal action challenged segregation. A Supreme Court ruling and pressure on bus revenues contributed to the desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Think aloud: A sustained bus boycott and legal challenge contributed to desegregation in 1956.

Check: Did that change end all racism? No.

Arrival answers

1. An action expressing opposition
2. An action expressing opposition
3. A sustained bus boycott and legal challenge contributed to desegregation in 1956.
4. No.

Shared activity reasoning

1. 1955 arrest and boycott — 1. The campaign begins in this sequence.
2. 1956 desegregation — 2. This follows the boycott and legal action.
3. 1957 move to Detroit — 3. Parks continued her work after moving.
4. 1987 institute established — 4. This is later evidence of continuing work.

Exit responses

What happened after the 1955 arrest? A sustained bus boycott and legal challenge contributed to desegregation in 1956.

Did that change end all racism? No.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Order event cards with a model date cue; build an annotated timeline and explain what changed.

Look for

F: book task, questioning and exit check.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
