

Investigating a rights campaign

Learning goal: Use sources to investigate a campaign for rights and change.

Words to use

| Word         | Meaning                                    |
|--------------|--------------------------------------------|
| protest      | An action expressing opposition            |
| boycott      | Choosing not to use a service or buy goods |
| segregation  | Enforced separation of groups              |
| significance | Why a person or event matters              |

Remember

Was Parks' action separate from all earlier organising? No. The source describes years of civil-rights work.

What is a limitation of one later biography? It selects events and cannot represent every participant's experience.

How to show your learning

Annotate the supplied source summary.

The biography shows _____. This helps us understand _____. It cannot tell us _____.

Evidence matters

Fictional cases are teaching examples. Historical, geographical and religious claims use the named sources. A model video demonstrates a method.

You can respond by speaking, pointing, drawing, typing or writing. A fictional personal example is welcome.
