Previous lesson reminder:

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 What happened after the 1955 arrest?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits protest?

Support: Choose: An action expressing opposition OR Choosing not to use a service or buy goods.

My response

3 Was Parks' action separate from all earlier organising?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor A or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 What is a limitation of one later biography?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Before December 1955

Rosa Parks had years of civil-rights organising experience, including work with the NAACP. Montgomery buses enforced racial segregation.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: This later biography selects events; it is not a recording made at the time.

B 1 December 1955

Parks was arrested after refusing to give up her seat to a white man on a Montgomery bus. Her action helped trigger a sustained community boycott.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: One person's action should be connected to wider organisation and community participation.

C 1956 change

The boycott and legal action challenged segregation. A Supreme Court ruling and pressure on bus revenues contributed to the desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: Bus desegregation did not end all racism or inequality.

D Later work

Parks moved to Detroit in 1957 and continued civil-rights work. In 1987 the Rosa and Raymond Parks Institute was established to support young people.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: Later recognition is evidence of legacy, but not a measure of everyone's views.

Shared investigation

1. Ask what is it, what does it show and what can we learn of the NPS biography.
2. Highlight evidence of individual and collective action.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
