

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Why was the bus system challenged?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits protest?

Support: Choose: An action expressing opposition OR Choosing not to use a service or buy goods.

My response

3 Which card best supports a claim about a policy change?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Can later work support a legacy judgement?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Before December 1955

Rosa Parks had years of civil-rights organising experience, including work with the NAACP. Montgomery buses enforced racial segregation.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: This later biography selects events; it is not a recording made at the time.

B 1 December 1955

Parks was arrested after refusing to give up her seat to a white man on a Montgomery bus. Her action helped trigger a sustained community boycott.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: One person's action should be connected to wider organisation and community participation.

C 1956 change

The boycott and legal action challenged segregation. A Supreme Court ruling and pressure on bus revenues contributed to the desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: Bus desegregation did not end all racism or inequality.

D Later work

Parks moved to Detroit in 1957 and continued civil-rights work. In 1987 the Rosa and Raymond Parks Institute was established to support young people.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: Later recognition is evidence of legacy, but not a measure of everyone's views.

Shared investigation

1. Rank evidence of impact, change and legacy.
2. Listen to a different defensible ranking and revise if useful.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Use the evidence cards and any visual sheet. Follow the two shared steps above, then record one decision.

Our explanation

Support: Read one evidence card together. Highlight a useful detail. Rehearse with: I judge ____ strongest because it shows _____. Card ____ also shows _____.

Further challenge: Explain why significance can differ according to the question and people considered.

Supported independent task

Complete this route only. Evaluate the significance of a person who created change.

1. Choose the strongest evidence of Parks' significance.
2. Justify it against an explicit criterion.
3. Use a second card and avoid erasing collective action.

Support: Read one evidence card together. Highlight a useful detail. Rehearse with: I judge ____ strongest because it shows _____. Card ____ also shows _____. Complete the organiser one space at a time. I judge ____ strongest because it shows _____. Card ____ also shows _____.
