Judging a person's significance / GROW_S1_W04

Outcome: Evaluate the significance of a person who created change.

Evidence to retain: F: significance judgement and exit check.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

No segregation simulation, forced role-play or repetition of racist abuse. Explain the discriminatory system clearly and recognise collective action.

Access and regulation

Chunk sources and tasks; pre-teach vocabulary with images. Offer sentence stems, organisers, oral rehearsal and typing. Start with one modelled example; extend through a second source, comparison or supported judgement. Check the learner can begin within two minutes, then fade prompts.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

Use sensitive content warnings where relevant. Do not ask for family details or personal experiences.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Which card best supports a claim about a policy change?

Evidence: C 1956 change: The boycott and legal action challenged segregation. A Supreme Court ruling and pressure on bus revenues contributed to the desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Think aloud: C, describing desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Check: Can later work support a legacy judgement? Yes. D shows continued activity, but does not measure everyone's views.

Arrival answers

1. It enforced racial segregation and unequal treatment.
2. An action expressing opposition
3. C, describing desegregation of Montgomery buses.
4. Yes. D shows continued activity, but does not measure everyone's views.

Shared activity reasoning

Exit responses

Which card best supports a claim about a policy change? C, describing desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Can later work support a legacy judgement? Yes. D shows continued activity, but does not measure everyone's views.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Rank evidence against impact/change/legacy criteria. Justify the strongest evidence in a short response.

Look for

F: significance judgement and exit check.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
