Previous lesson reminder:

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Which card best supports a claim about a policy change?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits protest?

Support: Choose: An action expressing opposition OR Choosing not to use a service or buy goods.

My response

3 Should an account be only a list of dates?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor B, C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 What should the conclusion do?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Before December 1955

Rosa Parks had years of civil-rights organising experience, including work with the NAACP. Montgomery buses enforced racial segregation.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: This later biography selects events; it is not a recording made at the time.

B 1 December 1955

Parks was arrested after refusing to give up her seat to a white man on a Montgomery bus. Her action helped trigger a sustained community boycott.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: One person's action should be connected to wider organisation and community participation.

C 1956 change

The boycott and legal action challenged segregation. A Supreme Court ruling and pressure on bus revenues contributed to the desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: Bus desegregation did not end all racism or inequality.

D Later work

Parks moved to Detroit in 1957 and continued civil-rights work. In 1987 the Rosa and Raymond Parks Institute was established to support young people.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: Later recognition is evidence of legacy, but not a measure of everyone's views.

Shared investigation

1. Repair a draft with confused chronology and an unsupported conclusion.
2. Rehearse point, evidence and explanation.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Move or match the cards

Cards to use
Parks had never campaigned before 1955
