P Factors before September 1939

Nazi expansion brought Austria and the Sudetenland under German control in 1938; German forces occupied the Czech lands in 1939. Repeated expansion and the later invasion of Poland help explain the widening conflict.

Limit: These selected factors do not exhaust the diplomatic, economic and ideological causes.

A Europe in 1939

Nazi Germany's expansion and invasion of Poland on 1 September 1939 led Britain and France to declare war on 3 September. Longer-term conditions and leaders' choices help explain the conflict.

Limit: A sequence of dates alone is not a complete causal explanation.

B The Holocaust

The Holocaust was the systematic persecution and murder of six million European Jews by Nazi Germany and its allies and collaborators. Persecution developed from 1933; the genocide took place during the Second World War. Nazi policies also persecuted and murdered other groups.

Limit: Do not collapse different groups' histories into identical experiences or treat genocide as inevitable.

C Gerda Haas remembers Ansbach

In her later oral history, Gerda Schild Haas recalls that religion mattered in her family. She describes Jewish affiliation appearing on forms and in community life in Ansbach before persecution.

Limit: This is a later remembered account of her experience. Broad generalisations in the full interview should not be treated as a survey of every Jewish family.

D Remembrance choices

An accurate memorial can name a person, recognise a life and credit evidence. A simple layout, readable text and a clear source can support respectful attention.
