Special things and why they matter / BUILD_RE_A1_W01

Outcome: Talk about what is special to me and give one reason why.

Evidence to retain: F: one special object and one reason.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Model first; no cold calling; accept pointing before speaking/writing; prompt with concrete choices; keep personal disclosure optional.

Access and regulation

Visual choices; 2-option matching; sentence stem; drawing/verbal/scribed response; no requirement to share a real personal object; typing option.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Why is the watch special to Mina?

Evidence: A Mina's watch: Fictional case: Mina wears an old watch. It was her grandad's. It does not cost much. It matters because it reminds her of him.

Think aloud: It was her grandad's and it reminds her of him.

Check: Does an object have to cost a lot to be special? No. The meaning makes it special, not the price.

Arrival answers

1. Important to someone for a reason
2. Important to someone for a reason
3. It was her grandad's and it reminds her of him.
4. No. The meaning makes it special, not the price.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Grandad's watch — A person. It reminds Mina of someone she loves.
2. First-match football shirt — A memory. It holds the memory of a good day.
3. A holy book — A belief. It is sacred to people of a faith.

Exit responses

Why is the watch special to Mina? It was her grandad's and it reminds her of him.

Does an object have to cost a lot to be special? No. The meaning makes it special, not the price.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 simple retrieval/misconception questions about special, sacred, belief and respect. Starter: choose which object might be special and why. I Do: model 'This is special because...' using an everyday object, then link to how religious people value special objects. We Do: match objects to possible meanings. You Do: choose, draw or describe one special object and give a reason. Exit ticket: complete 'Something can be special because...'.

Look for

F: one special object and one reason.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
