

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

A · People sitting together

B · One person left outside

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Where is a Torah scroll kept in a synagogue?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits belonging?

Support: Choose: Feeling part of a group and welcome in it OR People linked by a place, belief or activity.

My response

3 What is one sign that Sam is welcome at the gurdwara?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor B or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Did anyone ask Sam what he believes before welcoming him?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A The visit

Fictional story: Sam visits a gurdwara with his friend Jas. A gurdwara is a Sikh place of worship. They follow the host's guidance about covering their heads and removing shoes.

Source: Authored story based on Sikh practice

Limit: One story cannot show every gurdwara or every Sikh family.

B The welcome

A volunteer smiles and says hello. She shows Sam where to sit. Nobody asks what Sam believes. Everyone is welcome.

Source: Authored story based on Sikh practice

Limit: One story cannot show every gurdwara or every Sikh family.

C The shared meal

The visitors share langar, a free community meal. Many people sit on the floor together as a sign of equality. Chairs or other arrangements can support people who need them.

Source: Authored story based on Sikh practice

Limit: One story cannot show every gurdwara or every Sikh family.

D Joining in

Sam chooses to help carry cups after the meal. Jas thanks him. The welcome and shared meal helped him feel included; helping is a choice, not a condition of belonging.

Source: Authored story based on Sikh practice

Limit: Belonging can feel different for different people.

Shared investigation

1. Put the four parts of Sam's visit in order.
2. Find one thing in the story that shows belonging.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
