

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

A · Two people, the same value

B · Two people, different values

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Why do readers often use a pointer with a Torah scroll?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits belief?

Support: Choose: Something a person holds to be true OR Something a person thinks is important in how to live.

My response

3 What value do Aisha and Tom share?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor A, B or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Do Aisha and Tom have the same beliefs about God?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Aisha

Fictional profile: Aisha is 15 and Muslim. She gives part of her pocket money to charity. She says, "My faith teaches me to help people in need."

Source: Authored profile

Limit: This is one person's view. Other Muslims may describe their faith differently.

B Tom

Fictional profile: Tom is 16 and a Humanist. He does not follow a religion. He helps at a food bank. He says, "People should look after each other."

Source: Authored profile

Limit: This is one person's view. Other Humanists may describe their views differently.

C Same and different

Aisha and Tom have different beliefs about God. They share a value: helping others.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Sharing one value does not make two worldviews the same.

D Values cards

Kindness. Fairness. Family. Helping others. Peace.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: A person can hold many values. A card shows only one.

Shared investigation

1. Sort each statement: Aisha, Tom or both.
2. Name the value that both people share.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
