Beliefs and worldviews in our community / GROW_RE_A1_W01

Outcome: Identify different beliefs and worldviews in our community.

Evidence to retain: F: community-worldviews map naming two worldviews.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Mode! neutral language; no cold calling; use 'some/ many/this person'; check vocabulary before independent task; allow pointing before speaking/writing.

Access and regulation

Short text; visual icons; 2-option choices; sentence stems; verbal/scribed response; typing option; no personal belief disclosure required.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Name two different worldviews found in Britain.

Evidence: A Hannah: Fictional profile: Hannah is 14 and Christian. She goes to church with her gran and prays before exams. She says her faith helps her stay calm. C Ellie: Fictional profile: Ellie is 14 and non-religious. She calls herself a Humanist. She thinks people should use reason and kindness to decide what is right.

Think aloud: Any two, for example Christianity and Humanism.

Check: Does a non-religious person have beliefs and values? Yes. Everyone has a worldview, religious or not.

Arrival answers

1. An organised set of beliefs, practices and community
2. An organised set of beliefs, practices and community
3. Any two, for example Christianity and Humanism.
4. Yes. Everyone has a worldview, religious or not.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Prays before exams and goes to church — Christian. Card A: Hannah goes to church and prays.
2. Fasts in Ramadan — Muslim. Card B: Imran fasts in Ramadan.
3. Uses reason and kindness, follows no religion — Humanist. Card C: Ellie is non-religious and a Humanist.

Exit responses

Name two different worldviews found in Britain. Any two, for example Christianity and Humanism.

Does a non-religious person have beliefs and values? Yes. Everyone has a worldview, religious or not.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 short retrieval/misconception questions about religion, belief, worldview and community. Starter: image sort — religious / non-religious / unsure. I Do: introduce the idea of a worldview using short lived examples. We Do: match people/profiles to beliefs or worldview clues. You Do: create a simple community-worldviews map using fictional profiles. Exit ticket: name two different worldviews found in Britain.

Look for

F: community-worldviews map naming two worldviews.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
