

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

A · Three linked boxes

B · A list

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Name two different worldviews found in Britain.

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits identity?

Support: Choose: Who a person is and how they see themselves OR To have an effect on something.

My response

3 What value does Imran's belief lead to?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor A or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Is belief the only thing that shapes identity?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Imran's chain

Fictional profile: Imran believes that God asks people to care for those in need. So he values generosity. So he chooses to help at the food bank each week.

Source: Authored profile

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

B Ellie's chain

Fictional profile: Ellie believes this is the one life we have. So she values making a difference now. So she chooses to join a litter pick.

Source: Authored profile

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

C What shapes identity

Family, friends, place, interests, culture and beliefs can all shape identity. Belief is one influence among many.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Belief does not fully decide who someone is.

D The chain

Belief → value → choice. Ask: what does the person believe? What do they care about because of it? What do they do?

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Real lives are less tidy than a three-step chain.

Shared investigation

1. Decide whether each statement is a belief, a value or a choice.
2. Highlight the clue that links one step to the next.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
