Big question: do beliefs make us who we are? / GROW_RE_A2_W04

Outcome: Discuss a big question about identity respectfully and give a reason for a viewpoint.

Evidence to retain: F: supported response to the big question.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.

Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

No cold calling; model disagreement without judgement; separate evidence from personal belief; actively correct stereotyping.

Access and regulation

No forced speaking; students may write/place cards; sentence stems; processing time; visual response scale; third-person option.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Give one respectful discussion phrase.

Evidence: D Discussion phrases: "I see your point, but..." · "I agree because..." · "It depends on..." · "Can you give an example?"

Think aloud: For example: "I see your point, but...".

Check: Is "it depends" an acceptable answer? Yes, when it comes with a reason.

Arrival answers

1. A set of actions done in a fixed way with meaning.
2. What a person thinks about a question
3. For example: "I see your point, but...".
4. Yes, when it comes with a reason.

Shared activity reasoning

1. "I see your point, but family matters too." — Respectful. It accepts the other view and adds a reason.
2. "That's a stupid thing to say." — Needs changing. It attacks the person and gives no reason.
3. "It depends. Can you give an example?" — Respectful. It asks for evidence.

Exit responses

Give one respectful discussion phrase. For example: "I see your point, but...".

Is "it depends" an acceptable answer? Yes, when it comes with a reason.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 retrieval questions. Starter: choose a big question, e.g. 'Do beliefs make us who we are?' I Do: model agreeing/disagreeing respectfully with a reason. We Do: sort statements into agree / disagree / depends and justify one. You Do: give a supported response to the big question using evidence/example. Exit ticket: one respectful discussion phrase.

Look for

F: supported response to the big question.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.
