3 How does Daniel's belief influence his choice of work?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor A or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Does a belief fully determine a person's identity?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Daniel

Fictional profile: Daniel is 24, Christian and a care worker. He says, “I believe every person is made in the image of God, so everyone deserves dignity.” He chose care work over a better-paid job.

Source: Authored profile

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

B Priya

Fictional profile: Priya is 26 and a Humanist. She says, “This is the one life we have, so I want mine to be useful.” She volunteers as a mentor and gives blood.

Source: Authored profile

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

C Belief → choice → identity

A belief can lead to a choice. Repeated choices become part of how a person sees themselves and how others see them.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Real lives are less tidy than a three-step model.

D Other influences

Family, money, health, friends and place also shape adult choices. Belief is one influence, and people can change their views.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Belief does not fully determine identity.

Shared investigation

1. Label each piece of evidence: belief, choice or identity.
2. Highlight the phrase that shows influence.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
