A · Point, evidence, explain

B · A list

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Name one value shared across two worldviews.

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits point?

Support: Choose: A clear answer to the question OR An example or fact that supports the point.

My response

3 In the model answer, which sentence is the evidence?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Is a list the same as an explanation?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A The structure

Point: answer the question. Evidence or example: “For example...”. Explain: “This shows... because...”. Three sentences are enough.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: This is a support for clear thinking, not an exam technique.

B A list, not an explanation

“Christians pray, go to church and read the Bible.” This lists. It never says why.

Source: Authored classroom example

Limit: A list can be the start of a good answer.

C A model explanation

“A belief can influence a person’s work. For example, Daniel believes everyone deserves dignity. Therefore he chose care work, because it lets him act on that belief.”

Source: Authored classroom model

Limit: A model shows the method. Other good answers exist.

D Question bank

How can a belief influence a choice? Why might someone trust a sacred text? How can a shared value bring people together?

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Choose the question you can support with evidence.

Shared investigation

1. Improve each weak response using the colour-coded structure.
2. Find the evidence in the improved version.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Move or match the cards

Cards to use
The Day of Peace is about peace.
Humanists are nice and do good things.

Rewrite one draft and explain what you changed.

Our explanation

Support: Use the glossary and one chunk of evidence. Plan the claim and supporting detail before explaining.

Further challenge: Add a second piece of evidence and explain which is stronger.

Supported independent task

Complete this route only. Write or give a structured explanation using a point, evidence/example and explanation.

1. Choose one question from the bank.
2. Choose your evidence from three options.
3. Say the three sentences aloud, or have them scribed.

Support: Use the glossary and one chunk of evidence. Plan the claim and supporting detail before explaining. Complete the organiser one space at a time. Point: _____. For example, _____. This shows _____ because _____.

My point

Evidence for my point

My explanation

My checked or improved sentence

An adult may read or scribe your exact response. They should not choose the answer.
