Previous lesson reminder:

A · People at different life stages

B · A blank page

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Give one reason pilgrimage may matter to a believer.

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits rite of passage?

Support: Choose: A ceremony that marks a new stage of life OR A formal event with set words and actions.

My response

3 Define “rite of passage”.

Support: Use the model evidence anchor word or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Are rites of passage only religious?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Bar and Bat Mitzvah

Bar or Bat Mitzvah marks becoming responsible for the commandments in Jewish life. Common ages are 13 for boys and 12 or 13 for girls, depending on the community. A synagogue celebration may include reading Torah; practices vary.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Jewish communities mark this in different ways.

B Confirmation

Confirmation is an expression of Christian commitment in churches that practise it. In the Church of England it includes affirming baptismal promises and a bishop laying on hands. Other Christian traditions differ.

Limit: Christian churches differ. Some do not practise confirmation.

C A Humanist naming ceremony

Some non-religious families hold a naming ceremony to welcome a child. Family and friends make promises of support. There is no religious content.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Many non-religious families hold no ceremony.

D Three questions

What happens? What does it mean? How does it show belonging?

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Three questions are a starting point.

Shared investigation

1. Sort each detail: Bar/Bat Mitzvah, Confirmation or both.

2. Answer the three questions for one ceremony.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
