

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

A · Overlapping circles

B · A question mark

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Which principle asks you to imagine being the other person?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits life question?

Support: Choose: A question about meaning, purpose or how to live OR How a worldview answers a question.

My response

3 Give the strongest similarity between the two responses.

Support: Use the model evidence anchor B, C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Can two sources stand for two whole worldviews?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A The question

“How should we treat others?”

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: A life question has more than one thoughtful answer.

B A Muslim response

Authored fictional Muslim profile: the speaker connects care for others with teachings about wishing others well and with zakat. They explain giving as a responsibility to God and to people in need.

Source: Authored source drawing on a well-known hadith

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

C A Humanist response

Authored fictional Humanist profile: the speaker uses empathy and considers consequences for people. They want to reduce suffering and help others, without grounding that choice in a belief in God.

Source: Authored source

Limit: This is one person's view. Others who share the worldview may describe it differently.

D Comparing ideas, not people

Compare what the sources say. Use “Both... whereas...”.

Source: Authored classroom rules

Limit: Two sources cannot stand for two whole worldviews.

Shared investigation

1. Sort each statement: Muslim source, Humanist source or both.
2. Use “Both... whereas...” for one pair.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Move or match the cards

Cards to use
Wanting to help people in need
Reasoning through empathy and consequences
Giving linked to duty to God

Possible labels: Both / Humanist profile / Muslim profile

Our explanation

Support: Use the glossary and one chunk of evidence. Plan the claim and supporting detail before explaining.

Further challenge: Explain whether the different reasons matter if the action is the same.

Supported independent task

Complete this route only. Compare how two worldviews respond to one important life question.

1. Choose the question and listen to both sources.
2. Find one thing both say.
3. Say or finish: Both ____.

Support: Use the glossary and one chunk of evidence. Plan the claim and supporting detail before explaining. Complete the organiser one space at a time. Both _____. The Muslim source says _____, whereas the Humanist source says _____.

My choice or example

A detail from the card story or object

My reason

My check or next step

An adult may read or scribe your exact response. They should not choose the answer.

Standard independent task

Complete this route only. Compare how two worldviews respond to one important life question.

1. Complete the comparison frame.
2. Include one similarity and one difference.
3. Refer to each source.

Support: Both _____. The Muslim source says _____, whereas the Humanist source says _____.

My choice or example

A detail from the card story or object

My reason

My check or next step

Check the required evidence and revise one detail.

Stretch independent task

Complete this route only. Compare how two worldviews respond to one important life question.

1. Compare the two responses using short quotations.
2. Explain the belief behind the difference.
3. Evaluate whether the reason behind an action matters.

Support: Choose the evidence independently. Use the frame only if it helps.

My choice or example

A detail from the card story or object

My reason

My check or next step

Explain whether the different reasons matter if the action is the same.

Exit ticket

Choose a response mode. You may give your answers privately to an adult.

Give the strongest similarity between the two responses.

My response

Can two sources stand for two whole worldviews?

My response

Support: Both _____. The Muslim source says _____, whereas the Humanist source says _____.

Further challenge: Explain whether the different reasons matter if the action is the same.

One thing I changed or want to check
