A Describe or compare?

Describe: says what one thing is like. Compare: sets two things side by side using both, however or whereas.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Good comparisons start from accurate descriptions.

B The structure

Both... (similarity). However... / whereas... (difference). Because... (reason from evidence).

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: A support for clear thinking, not an exam technique.

C A weak comparison

“Christians have confirmation. Jews have Bar Mitzvah.” Two descriptions, no comparison.

Source: Authored classroom example

Limit: It is a useful starting point.

D A model comparison

Both bar or Bat Mitzvah and Christian confirmation can mark religious responsibility or commitment within a community. Their meanings and practices differ. Bar or Bat Mitzvah concerns responsibility for commandments; Church of England confirmation includes affirming baptismal promises. Customs vary.

Limit: Other good answers exist.
